

Sedona Public Library's Summer Program

Sedona Youth Theatre

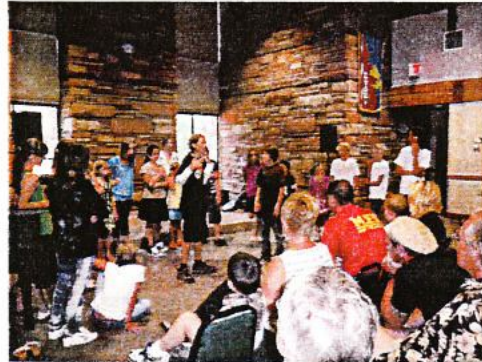

A ten day explorative intensive filled with loads of theatre fun for everyone!

JULY 12, 13, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22, 23 ~ 1PM to 2:30PM

July 24th Performance 3PM

Ages 11-18

This summer the Sedona Public Library is bringing in professional performing artists Shondra Jepperson & Dev Ross with their Sedona Youth Theatre program that will engage kids in a 10 day workshop of theatre and voice culminating with a performance open to the public.

Whether your child has had experience on stage or has a desire to explore his or her talents, this summer program is guaranteed fun!

Kids will be led through

- Theatre games,
- Improvisation, voice and breathing techniques
- Opportunities to collaborate together, stretch out creatively with two professionals in the entertainment business.

When kids study with Dev and Shondra they have the benefits of learning from two professionals who have years of professional experience and who are still currently working in their fields.

- Dev Ross is an Emmy Award winning writer who is a professional actress, singer, director and producer.
- Shondra Jepperson is an alumni of the Juilliard Acting School and a professional actress, singer, musician, composer and producer.

Full workshop $60.00 – Cash only – Paid in advance of July 12th

For registration & more information call the Sedona Public Library

(928) 282-7714